Interim North Mianus School Assistant Principal Appointed

Greenwich, CT - Wednesday, July 20, 2016 – Interim Superintendent of Schools Dr. Salvatore Corda announced the appointment of Ms. Kathleen Brunswick as the Interim Assistant Principal for North Mianus School (NMS), effective immediately. Ms. Brunswick is currently a special education teacher at Glenville School and has been the Site Supervisor/Building Administrator for the Greenwich Public Summer School and Extended Year Program at Hamilton Avenue School for summers 2013 to 2016.

North Mianus School Principal Angela Schmidt, said, “I am very excited to welcome Kat Brunswick to NMS. She brings a wide range of skills to this position, from her experience in teacher evaluation and management to developing and implementing both behavioral and academic plans to meet the needs of all learners. She demonstrates strong communication skills in addressing colleagues, parents and students. Her background in technology and data analysis makes her an ideal fit for our school. We look forward to working together to support the needs of the NMS school community.”

As Interim Assistant Principal, Ms. Brunswick is responsible for assisting the Principal with the administrative operations of the school, including staff evaluations, scheduling, and special education.

A search for the permanent position of NMS Assistant Principal will be conducted at the start of the hiring season in January 2017.
