

Class of 2019
Compass Yearbook
Senior Quotes
Deadline: October 19, 2018

READ EVERYTHING ON THIS DOCUMENT
FOR YOUR QUOTE TO BE CONSIDERED

PART 1

The best message has a short quote and thank you that will make sense when you read it ten years from now.

The GHS Media Center and Public Libraries are good sources for quotes. If you use the internet do not be surprised if others in your class have the same quote. Some sources that are not accepted: Pinterest, YouTube, or any type of video.

Use this checklist to submit EXACTLY what is required:

- Quotes MUST include quotation marks and the author's name.
- You must provide the source in mla citation format:
ex: Brown, Dan. The DaVinci Code. Knopf Doubleday, 2003 quotes are automatically rejected if there is no citation
- Quoting a staff member or coach requires their approval attached to your email.
- Quotes in a language other than English must be translated to English and approved by the appropriate language teacher. Attach their approval to your email.
- NO numbers, initials, abbreviations, hashtags, emoji's, or characters.
- Single space. Maximum quote/message is approximately 25 words.
- PLEASE make sure spelling/punctuation/grammar/capitalization are all correct
- Your message WILL BE REJECTED if you corrupt the quote or include profanity, references to discrimination, alcohol, drugs, sex, nudity, violence, or if the citation is missing
- Compass Yearbook retains the right to reject any quote

PART 2

Quotes are only accepted through your GHS email using the format below:

From: firstname.lastname@greenwichschools.org
To: seniorquotes4compass@gmail.com
Subject: Senior Quote

Copy and paste your quote and message

EXAMPLE:

“Don’t give up. Don’t lose hope. Don’t sell out.” -Christopher Reeve
Thanks mom, dad, Jenny, and everyone who supported me along the way!

Below this provide the MLA citation. This is only used for reference by the yearbook staff.

Use your original email thread for all correspondence.

If the above is not followed your quote may be rejected. Please check carefully for inaccuracies.

We will notify you when your quote has been accepted or denied.
Compass Yearbook retains the right to reject quotes at its discretion.

DEADLINE: OCTOBER 19, 2018

Note: Quotes received after the deadline are not guaranteed a placement in the yearbook.
